Guiding Principles

As your current representative for Snohomish County, Sam is guided by some foundational principles:

- Sam has fought for fair and equal representation for everyone. He is for property rights! Whether or not you are a small property owner you deserve to be treated with the same fairness and equality.
- Public safety has always been, and continues to be, a top priority. We need to provide a safe and efficient infrastructure of roadways to travel throughout our county.
- We live in such a beautiful area with so many things to see and do, Sam continues supporting the making of the Sky Valley recreation areas accessible and improving the amenities associated with them.

Community Involvement

- Sam annually gives out the Sam Low Rotary Scholarship award to a deserving High School Senior.
- Sam is active with the Lake Stevens Rotary.
- Sam was recognized for his volunteer work on the Granite Falls Boys and Girls Club.
- Sam has sponsored several local sports teams.
- Sam donated time painting the Lake Stevens city entry signs.
- Sam volunteered to refinish the Lake Stevens swim beach dock.
- Through Rotary Sam has done several community clean-up projects.
- Sam has been a sponsor of the C-Trail run through his business.
- Sam loves spending time with his wife Mariah and five kids: Meghan, Caleb, Mercy, Seth, and Vaden.
